Sir,

SUB: Using the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" for "Rajpramukh of Mysore" - Article 153 read with Articles 238 (1) and 366 (21) (B) of the Constitution of India.

I am directed to state that in Sri Hari Sharma's D.O. letter No. nil dated 12 Jan 1950 ~~Dated~~ the Government of India intimated that it was not necessary to substitute the words "Rajpramukh of Mysore" for "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore". Accordingly, the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" are being continued to be used in all official references and orders. Copies of O.M. No. 9935-44/CB 244-49-3 dt 1.2.50 and O.M. No. 9986-9995/CB.253-49-2 dt 4.2.50 are enclosed for repea.

Meanwhile, at the instance of the Govt. of India, Ministry of States, one or two Notifications, more particularly, the notification relating to the authentication of orders is proposed to be ~~used~~ issued in the name of the Rajpramukh [redacted] signed by the Rajpramukh himself.

As the adoption of different titles in different orders is likely to cause confusion, I am to request you ~~xx~~ kindly to clarify whether a uniform practice may be adopted and if so, whether the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" may continue to be used as before as already intimated by the Government of India in their letter referred to above, or ~~other~~ whether the words "Rajpramukh of Mysore" should ~~may~~ be brought into use.

Subject: Using the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" for "Rajapramukh of Mysore" - Article 153 read with Article 238 (1) and 366 (21)(B) of the Constitution of India.

I am directed to state that in Sri Hari Sharma's D.O.letter No.nil dated 12/13th January 1950 the Government of India intimated that it was not necessary to substitute the words "Rajapramukh of Mysore" for "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore". Accordingly, the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" are being continued to be used in all official references and orders. Copies of Official Memorandum No.9935-44/CB.244-49-3 dated 1-2-50 and No.9986-9995/CB.253-49-2 dated 4-2-50 are enclosed for reference.

Meanwhile, at the instance of the Government of India, Ministry of States, one or two Notifications, more particularly, the notification relating to the authentication of orders is proposed to be issued in the name of the Rajapramukh signed by the Rajpramukh himself. The words "Rajpramukh of Mysore" have been used in the Notification appointing the Ministers.

As the adoption of different titles in different orders is likely to cause confusion, I am to request you kindly to clarify whether a uniform practice may be adopted and if so, whether the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" may continue to be used as before as already intimated by the Government of India in their letter referred to above, or whether the words "Rajpramukh of Mysore" should be brought into use.

An early reply is requested.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

SUBJECT:- Using the words "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" for "Rajpramukh of Mysore" Article 153 read with Article 238(1) and 366(21)(B) of the Constitution of India.

The attention of the Secretaries to Govt. is once again drawn to O.M. No.9935-44/C.B.244-49-3, dated the 1st February 1950, and to O.M.No.9986-9995/C-B-253-49-2, dated the 4th February 1950.

In spite of the clear instructions in the above O.M. it is seen that certain Branches of the Secretariat, ~~notably the Law and Legislative Deptts.~~ are using the words "Rajpramukh of Mysore State" in Notifications issued by them.

As some doubts had been expressed whether the words "H.H. the ~~Raj~~ Maharaja of Mysore" could be continued to be used as before, the matter was once again referred to the Govt. of India ~~again~~ and it is now authoritatively stated by them that the terms "Maharaja of Mysore" may be used in all Orders, Instruments, etc., issued by or under the authority of the Head of the State.

The Secretaries to Government are/Therefore requested to see that only the terms "His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore" are used in all Orders, Instruments, etc., ~~as before~~ and that innovations like "By Order of H.H. the Rajpramukh of Mysore" and other variations/~~may be~~/ if the same are strictly ~~xxxxx~~ avoided.

By Order of H.H. the Maharaja,

~~8/7/50~~ 8/7/50 Chief Secretary to Govt.
